CUPID'S ARROW.

—Alonzo Lucas and Miss Minnie Arrus, of this city, were married on Friday evening, at the residence of Rev. J. L. Clark.

DEATHS.

—Miss Mattie McClure, sister of Mr. James McClure, of this city, died at St. Joseph, Mo., Saturday night. The remains were brought here and the funeral service will take place from the home of Mr. McClure, on Vine street, the afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

BIRTHS.

—To the wife of Ollie Carter, nee Stout, a daughter.

CHURCH CHIMES.

—Rev. Henry Knott, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church, in this city, has accepted a call to the deanery of St. Bartholomew's Cathedral at Chicago. The offer was made by Bishop Anderson, of the diocese of Chicago. The Chicago charge is reckoned among the largest and most prominent of the Episcopal churches in the country. Rev. Knott is not more than 27 years of age.

—To-day Catholic churches will observe Candlemas day. All candles must be of wax.

—Chancellor Blanton, formerly of this city, has been stated clerk of the Synod of Kentucky for thirty years, and will hold the office as long as he desires.

—The Rev. Dr. James S. Stone, rector of St. James' Episcopal church, Chicago, in a sensational sermon Sunday, denounced the Chicago rich as pagans, "rich pagans, if you will, but as surely pagans."

RENTED.—Smith Clarke has rented the residence of Mrs. A. P. Allis, on Duncan avenue.

WEATHER FORECAST.—For to-day: Increasing cloudiness and warmer.

General News.

Horse famine threatened in New York on account of accidents to animals in icy streets.

George Spalding, a well-known resident of Mercer county, died of pneumonia. He was an eccentric character and lived as a hermit. He had never ridden on the cars and was noted for his physical strength.

Thos. Roberts, aged 88, vice president of the Farmers' National Bank, at Danville, Ky., and a wealthy citizen, died Sunday. His estate is valued at $500,000.

A dispatch from Mt. Sterling says that Mrs. Harrison Coons, of the Judy neighborhood, left her eighteen-months-old child in front of the fire while she went into another room. The fire ignited the child's clothing, burning the little one almost to a crisp. It lived only a few minutes.

THE BEST COAL!
Is What One Should Burn.

There are many kinds of Coal on the market that are cheaper than ours, but the lower-priced Coals are expensive to burn. They contain too much waste.

Try our

Mountain Ash Jellico
OR
"Italian" Blue Gem,

and you will always be satisfied.
